

DANIEL DAILEY.

Mr. STOKES, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Daniel Dailey, report:

That after examining the evidence accompanying the petition of Daniel Dailey, it appears that he was a private in Captain Ervin's company in 1838, in the Florida war. He states on oath that he received an injury in one of his eyes, also in one of his legs, and two surgeons state that from those injuries he is three-fourths disabled; but as they know nothing of the cause of the injuries or wounds of their own knowledge, there is no testimony of any one to prove the facts as stated by said Dailey, and, in the absence of such proof, your committee concur in reporting adversely upon the said petition, and ask to be discharged from its further consideration.
